

Integrated Content for Enablon

3E Company is the industry leader in researching, sourcing, aggregating, enriching and maintaining EH&S compliance related data and information and making it available in a format that is easy and practical to use, based on customers' specific needs. Whether it's managing SDSs or researching and reporting on the regulated chemicals and hazardous products used throughout your facilities, access to 3E's data ensures that your compliance processes are executed accurately and efficiently while reducing cost and risk. We have developed a variety of tools that seamlessly integrate our world-renowned data directly into third party corporate systems.

The Enablon platform offers the industry's most comprehensive suite of software, content and technology for end-to-end management of sustainability performance. It provides on-premise and SaaS solutions for Corporate Responsibility; Energy & Carbon Management; Environmental, Health & Safety Management and Operational Risk Management.

Enablon and 3E Company have collaborated to develop an integrated solution whereby 3E's EH&S related chemical and SDS-level content feeds the Enablon Platform's CMS (chemical management system), helping ensure that users can execute compliance practices accurately and efficiently while reducing cost and risk.

3E SDS Management Solution

Storing, updating and retrieving SDS documents can be difficult and expensive. Now Enablon users can automatically retrieve desired and relevant SDSs through 3E's rich set of SDS solutions that provide 24-7-365 access to a database of millions of SDSs.

By synchronizing Enablon with 3E's integrated SDS solution, users have instant access to up-to-date SDSs and critical data attributes, facilitating the seamless exchange of safety and product data across the organization, and resulting in enhanced compliance and increased productivity. The integrated solution provides corporate users with the most efficient and affordable method for complying with EH&S, hazard communication and workplace safety regulatory requirements.

BENEFITS

- Instant and efficient access to GHS compliant SDSs for each product in your inventory
- Removes tedious, time-consuming process of managing and updating manually within your applications
- Provides automatic access to critical data attributes to support key features in the Enablon platform
