Canada Consults on New Personal Care Product Regulations

Health Canada is seeking public input on possible changes to the regulation of self-care products, including the communication to consumers on issues related to the safety, efficacy and quality of these products. Comments from Canadian consumers are sought until 24 October 2016.

©2016, 3E Company, All Rights Reserved